EMPLOYEE-OWNED S CORPORATIONS OF AMERICA

Skokie, IL- Congresswoman Jan Schakowsky (IL) visited Forsythe, Inc. in Skokie, Illinois on August 14th. The Congresswoman first met with Forsythe's executive team to hear the company story and the role employee ownership places in the company culture.

During the meeting, Congresswoman Schakowsky discussed upcoming tax legislation and addressed questions the group had over changes being proposed by House Ways and Means Committee Chairman Charlie Rangel. Congresswoman Schakowsky then met with 50 of Forsythe's employee-owners and heard several of their stories about what employee ownership means to them. After speaking with the group, the Congresswoman promised to bring Forsythe's story back to Washington.

Congresswoman Schakowsky represents the 9th district of Illinois and is a member of the Energy & Commerce and Select Intelligence Committees.
